

Atelier Bernard Pictet
will show its latest creations
at AD MATIÈRES D'ART, November 13th to 22nd, 2020
at Palais d'Iéna in Paris

Atelier Bernard Pictet is exhibiting at the second AD MATIÈRES D'ART biennial, a showcase for the latest creations by the artisans of interior design and decoration.

Atelier Bernard Pictet will show four new pieces in combination with the exceptional fabric designs of Toyine Sellers.

The upholstery work for each piece, as well as the Rubelli silk velvet gainage of the frames, will be by Ateliers Jouffre.

Glass is traditionally associated with wood and metal supports. Atelier Bernard Pictet wanted to show how the more unusual combination of glass and textile can produce something that is both beautiful and original.
