Atelier Bernard Pictet at "Révélations" at the Grand Palais in Paris

Remarkable collaborative works by companies which are renowned in their field were showcased at the Grand Palais in Paris from 11 to 15 September 2013.

Bernard Pictet exhibited three.

For the "Prestige and Tradition" section

He created an astonishing angled construction of giant, silvered magnifying mirrors.
Dimensions: Width 3,150 x 2,800 mm

He also showed a table top in silver-grey glass with a small chiselled motif. The base, in hammered steel in the style of Diego Giacometti, is by wrought-iron artist Joël Orgiazzi.

Dimensions: 1,400 x 1,400 x Height 750

In the "Grands Ateliers de France" section

With Lison de Caunes, he set an engraved, chiselled and gilded glass case on a pedestal of gilded straw marquetry with, in the centre of the case, the hologram of a red straw camellia.
